I HAVE NO
ENEMIES

(Quote)
Enemies are seen as external things that we cannot control, and therefore they should not have the power to disturb our inner peace. By refusing to see anyone as his enemy, a Stoic can maintain a state of inner calm and equanimity, even in the face of adversity.
